ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A federal grand jury in St. Louis has indicted a former FBI agent on charges that he stole the body of a slain police officer and hid it in his home. The indictment, returned Tuesday, charges that the man, 44, hid the body in his home for nearly a year before it was discovered. The body was found in a room in the home of the man, who is now in custody. The man is charged with first-degree murder and possession of a body.
